

Vladimira Klumpar

Born 1954, Rychnov nad Kneznou, Czech Republic

Education

1969 - 1973 B.A. School of Glass Art, Zelezny Brod, Czechoslovakia

1974 - 1981 M.F.A. Academy of Applied Arts, Prague, Czechoslovakia, Studied under Professor Stanislav Libensky

Awards & Grants

1991 New England Artist Foundation Fellowship
Massachusetts Artist Foundation Fellowship

1997 Pollock - Krasner Foundation Grant

2007 Corning Museum Award Winner

Selected Collections

Museum of Art, Liberec, Czech Republic
Corning Museum of Glass, Corning, New York
Lanna Foundation, Palm Beach, Florida
Mint Museum of Art, Charlotte, North Carolina
American Arts and Craft Museum, New York, New York
North Bohemian Museum, Jablonec nad Nisou, Czech Republic
Wustum Museum of Art, Racine, Wisconsin

Selected Exhibitions

2009 Rhythm and Lines, Imago Galleries, Palm Desert, CA

2008 "Flux: Reflections of Contemporary Glass", New Mexico Museum of Art, New Mexico

2003 Imago Galleries, Palm Desert, CA

2001 Group Exhibition at Imago Galleries, Palm Desert, CA

1997 Sculpture and Drawings Drury Gallery, Marlboro College, Vermont

1992 Gallery Society of the Arts and Crafts, Boston, MA
Massachusetts Artist Foundation Award Recipients Exhibition, Boston Center for the Arts, Boston, MA

1988 International New Art Forms Exposition, Chicago, IL

1984 Gallery Gotchalk-Banz, Frankfurt, Germany
Czechoslovakian Glass, Umprum Museum, Prague

1983 The Glass Sculpture, Brno, Czech Republic
Karolina Galerie, Prague, Czech Republic

1982 Mezinarodni Sklarske Symposium, Umprum Museum, Prague

Czech Glass, Erfurt, Germany
Exempla, Munich, Germany

Bibliography

Michael Boylen, "Sculptures and Drawings", Review, Glass, Spring 1998

Chuck Meyer, "Sculptor Creates Drama in Glass", The Recorder, Greenfield, Ma., Jan. 15 1993

Sue Scott, "Exhibition Canal Gallery", Review, Glass, Winter 1993

The Springfield Advocate, Review, November 25, 1993